

WORLD BOOK DAY!

In Peterborough, the Thomas Deacon Academy and Junior College celebrated World Book Day on the 5th of March.

World Book Day is a worldwide celebration of reading and authors, it is one of the world biggest celebrations designed by UNESCO and first started in 1997. World Book Day is celebrated by more than 100 countries.

The Thomas Deacon Academy and Thomas Deacon Junior College celebrated this special day by giving every student a World Book Day Token. Some of the teachers dressed up for this day including the Head of English who came in dressed up as the character of Snow White.

The Head of English believes that reading is very important as she quoted during our interview that “it’s really enjoyable and is a fantastic way to get everybody reading”. We also interviewed a student at Thomas Deacon Academy who thought World Book Day “is an awesome idea which gets everybody to read”.

Both schools provided books for the students to buy using their World Book Day tokens. The most popular book for boys in the Junior College was Diary of Dennis the Menace. The popular book for girls in the Junior College was Dork Diaries How to be a Dork.
